AFTER SELL-OUT RUNS of A Midsummer Night's Dream and Sherlock Holmes & the Curse of the Werewolf, Spontaneous Productions are back with a brand new adaptation of Dumas' swashbuckling classic. Presented by a professional cast in the uniquely beautiful garden of The Dolphin Pub, expect swordplay, romance, thrills and intrigue.

FRANCE 1625, Claudette D'Artagnan has always dreamed of becoming a musketeer and avenging the death of her father. Travelling to Paris, she is soon swept up into a dastardly plot to dishonour the Queen of France. But will the musketeers ever accept her as one of their own? Can she rescue the Queen's maid from the evil clutches of Rochefort, the Cardinal's right hand man? And just who is the beautiful but mysterious Milady, Countess de Winter?

Adapted & directed by Jonathan Kaufman

Comments about last year's show, Sherlock Holmes:
'A very welcome brand of community theatre... fine acting by all, excellent direction that utilises the whole garden, and an overall professional finish...a lovely summer's evening entertainment.' ZEE GAINES, NEWSHOPPER. 'The show was really funny – some great acting and some real gem performances.'
AUDIENCE MEMBER'S ONLINE COMMENT.

SPONTANEOUS PRODUCTIONS, founded in 2007, is now one of South London's fastest growing theatre companies. Its most recent work includes site-specific show The Little Shop of Lost Toys, Ocelot Gymkhana: Heat 2, Kirkdale Bookshop's Alice in Wonderland Tea-Party and The Brothers Kaufman's Three-Course Comedy. Using mostly locally-based actors and technicians, Spontaneous is a community-based company that draws its talent from the local area.
